Speaker & Musicial Storyteller |
Positive Encourager &
Communicator | Spiritual
Teacher & Guide to Women

Kaleo is the Director and Owner of The Heart of Aloha LLC, a Speaker, Positive Encourager and Communicator, a Spiritual Guide and Mentor to Women, and a Hawaiian Cultural Awareness Consultant and Presenter.

She is also a podcast guest and host, recording artist, song stylist and musical storyteller. She has been speaking and telling her stories for over 35 years throughout the US and Canada. She offers learning opportunities to understand this ancient Spiritual and Pragmatic system of living, that embodies living in positivity and love, what they call Aloha, and how it is still so relevant and so needed in today's world to maintain harmony and balance in all your relationships with your heart, mind and spirit, the sacred land and your human family.

Venues include Corporate Events, Clubs & Organizations, Fundraisers & Benefits, Private Parties, Colleges & Universities, Healing Centers & Church Services, Senior Residences and Community Outreach Programs, and online conferences.

Kaleo effortlessly engages the audience to be an integral part of the entire experience. They return home feeling renewed, inspired, energized, uplifted and more at peace within themselves and with their world.

We fell completely in love with Kaleo. Her kind spirit and the gentleness of her words and thoughts just made our hearts rejoice. After her presentation there were smiles on everyone's faces. It was as if our spirit was lifted up."

William T, Senior Residence Activity Director Johnson City, TN

"When experiencing Kaleo speaking and telling her stories, you experience being totally involved with her as she is fully present in the world of the story she is sharing. She draws the audience in to open their hearts and be a part of that story with her. A true storyteller! Absolutely beautiful!"

Sekou Miller, The Alvin Alley Theater, New York City

As a Positive Encourager and Communicator, bringing an ancient Spiritual and Pragmatic system of living to today's world where it is still so relevant and so needed.
