

Kaleo Wheeler

Musical Storyteller through "Talk Story", Song and Hula, Ancient Storytelling and the Heartbeat of the Hawaiian People

Kaleo Wheeler is a charismatic, powerful and unique Storyteller; bringing to it her rich, warm and powerful singing voice, with her unique form of dance and ancient storytelling through movement, the Hawaiian Hula.

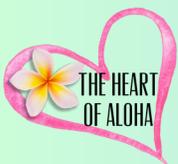

Kaleo began studying voice and performing in her teens, and her professional career spans more than 35 years as a singer/song stylist, sound healer, voice specialist, recording artist, author, spiritual teacher & mentor and a teacher/practitioner of Sacred Hawaiian Hula.

Whether it is in the small intimate setting of a private party or a larger event with hundreds of people; Kaleo is fully present in the world of the story she is telling. She effortlessly engages the audience to be an integral part of the entire experience, giving them a "time out" from all the stress and concerns in today's world. creates an atmosphere in which the audience experiences both laughter and poignant memories. She paints pictures of a culture that embraces respect, compassion, cooperation, and patience as a way of living - where no one is left behind or forgotten.

Venues include Corporate Events, Clubs & Organizations, Cultural Events, Fundraisers & Benefits, Private Parties, Colleges & Universities, Healing Centers & Church Services, Festivals, Senior Residences and Community Outreach Programs, and Schools as a South Carolina Arts Commission Artist in Residence.

On a personal note, Kaleo lives alone in Spartanburg SC with her fur baby, Bella, a Maltese/Shitzu, who is her constant companion and a healer in her own right. Bella is always there ready to give her love to anyone that comes into our space.
